

UPDATED: He lost his life while working in the Freeport

Tuesday, 29 September 2020

A 36-year-old man, a resident of Ħal Safi, lost his life in an accident that took place at around 5pm, in the Freeport, in the limits of Birżebbuġa.

Investigations revealed that the worker was doing some lift work. At that moment, a container fell down and ended up in the cabin of the lifter where the man was.

Members of the Civil Protection Department, as well as a medical team from the Emergency Department of Mater Dei Hospital, were immediately called to the scene. Unfortunately, the man was certified dead on the spot.

Sentry Magistrate Yana Micallef Stafrace was informed of the case, ordering an inquiry and appointing several experts to assist her. District Police investigations are ongoing

