

DUNKIRK - Article LA VDN

Workplace accident: a worker is killed by falling from a silo at Nord Céréales

Around 1 p.m. this Friday, a tragedy occurred at Nord Céréales, route du Bassin Maritime, in Dunkirk. He was carrying out maintenance work on the roof of a silo when he fell. Despite the treatment provided by the emergency services, the 44-year-old victim did not survive his injuries.

Annick Michaud | 06/26/2020 6:20 p.m.

A fatal accident occurred on Friday at the site of the Nord Céréales company, at the port of Dunkirk. While this worker was working on the roof of a grain silo as part of a maintenance operation, he fell about 30 meters. The firefighters tried to resuscitate him but the victim finally succumbed. According to our information, the worker is 44 years old.