

API Coatzacoalcos worker dies after being crushed by trailer

01 March, 2021 12:00:07

Coatzacoalcos, Ver.- This Monday, a worker from the Integral Port Administration (API) lost his life after he was crushed by a trailer containing cement inside the facilities.

According to the first reports, the events occurred in the Stevedores area, around 07:00 hours.

The man, identified as Gerardo Velazquez, was working when the accident occurred.

Elements of the Ministerial Police went to the site to carry out the corresponding procedures, while the body was transferred to the morgue of the Forensic Medical Service (Semefo).