

Hai Phong: Lack of observation, a forklift truck ran over and killed a container truck driver on the port yard

NAM KHANH 23:57 August 25, 2021

Hai An District Police (Hai Phong) has just informed about a labor accident that killed one person at a container yard in Hai An district.

According to the initial record from the Hai An District Police, at 6:25 pm today (August 25), at the SITC 3 container yard (Minh Phuong Industrial Park - Dinh Vu), in the area of Dong Hai 2 ward, Hai district. An (Hai Phong) had an accident that caused Mr. NHV (42 years old, HKTT in Nam Dinh city, Nam Dinh province), currently a driver and operator of a container truck carrying BKS 15C-26190 of Hai Trading Joint Stock Company. Room (Hanosimex) died.

The scene of a work accident that killed the driver of the container truck.

According to the initial investigation, through extracting security surveillance cameras, at that time, Mr. NHV was resting in the container yard when he was struck by a forklift truck in the port by driver Nguyen Van N. (27 years old, HKTT in Hanoi). Vong Hai village, Hoa An commune, Thai Thuy district, Thai Binh province) controlled the roll, causing NHV to die on the spot.

According to the initial assessment from the authorities, it is possible that the container truck driver did not fully observe when moving, was out of sight, could not detect the container driver who was taking advantage of sitting on the port yard. the main cause of this unfortunate accident.

Currently, Hai An District Police are coordinating with local authorities and related parties to verify and clarify the case.