

Sitting in the yard in Dinh Vu port, the driver of a container truck was run over and killed by a forklift

23:48 - August 25, 2021

While sitting in the SITC3 container yard of Dinh Vu port, a man believed to be the container truck driver was struck and killed by a forklift truck.

This evening, August 25, 2021, at Dinh Vu port in Hai An district, Hai Phong city, there was a serious accident causing 1 death. Cameras in the port captured the moment the accident happened.

Through the video, it can be seen that at that time, an unidentified man, believed to be a container truck driver, was sitting in the SITC3 container yard in Dinh Vu port. Suddenly, a container forklift truck appeared and ran over the driver's body.

The container truck driver was sitting in the yard of Dinh Vu port when the forklift came over (photo cut from the video)

It appears that the forklift driver did not observe the man sitting. The accident caused the victim to die on the spot.

The scene of a serious accident in Dinh Vu port (photo: Pham Man)

At the scene of the accident, the victim's body was not intact. Meanwhile, the forklift truck stopped about 2 meters from the victim's body.

The identity of the victim who was killed by a forklift truck is currently unknown (photo: Anh Huy)

Upon receiving the news, the functional forces were quickly present to regulate traffic, examine the scene and investigate and clarify the cause of the accident.