It was around 3 p.m. when the emergency services were called for a work accident at the port. Apparently a fall from a trailer. When they arrived, firefighters picked up a 31-year-old Romanian man who had been run over by a truck.

The victim did not survive and died moments later. The SMUR doctor could only confirm the death. The driver meanwhile was in shock, examined, he was left on the spot. The gendarmes were also present to determine the circumstances of this tragedy.
