Tragedy in Callao after an accident was reported at sea, at pier 3A. A driver was parking a white heavy-duty trailer. Suddenly, as can be seen in the images on the security camera, it seems that he lost control of the vehicle and fell into the water. The driver failed to get out and drowned. According to the media Prensa Chalaca, the incident occurred at 4 a.m. this Wednesday.

When police officers and ambulances arrived at the pier, they did not give any statements about what happened. It is known that the trailer transported cement near the pier, which did not prevent it from approaching the edge to fall with all the cargo into the sea.

“A trailer has fallen, a loaded truck, with a driver and everything in the sea here at pier 3. The buses are expected to come in to get it out. There are the fire brigade and the ambulance next to the coast guard boat (...) this dock is 14 meters low and deep. He moved the cement blocks and went straight to the sea,” added the person who recorded the event for the aforementioned medium.

The Transler company issued a statement expressing its regret and stating that the accident resulted in the death of worker Julio Ceasar Quiroz Ormeño.

“Our company has continuously reported and coordinated with the authorities the investigation of the event, in order to determine the causes. In this context, we reiterate our condolences to Julio Caesar's relatives and we sympathize with them,” he said.
