The Ministry of Employment and Labor is launching an investigation into whether a worker who was working in Incheon Port was hit by a trailer and died in violation of the Serious Accident Punishment Act.

On the 13th, Incheon Jungbu Police Station, a container trailer driver B (52) who hit a trailer and killed Mr.) has been booked and is awaiting investigation.

Person B stated to the police, "When I turned right at the intersection, I did not find Mr. A."

Person A, who died, was confirmed to have suffered an accident while being put into shift work at 7 pm on the same day.

The police said, "The place where Mr. B caused the accident is not on the road, but at the workplace, and the Road Traffic Act does not apply." "This case is a 'safety accident' in the workplace.

The Ministry of Employment and Labor will review the occupational safety and health Act and the Act on the Punishment of Serious Accidents in relation to the death of Mr. A, and will investigate whether the trailer driver's company and the deceased are 'employees' of the Act on the Punishment of Serious Accidents.
