Port of Rades: worker dies after being hit by a port tractor

A work accident in the commercial port of Rades in Tunisia kills the dock worker

2022-04-17 20:20

A worker at the port of Rades died in an accident on Sunday, 17 April, after he was accidentally hit by a port tractor.

According to a report from the state of Ben Arous, the accident occurred on board the ship ULYSSE of the Tunisian Navigation Company, anchored at the container and trailer terminal, where a port tractor collided with berth worker Mohamed Al Qassimi, causing him severe head and chest injuries. Despite an attempt to urgently take him to the hospital to treat him, the victim died on the way, according to the state's report.

Following the accident, the state of Ben Arous announced the opening of an investigation into the circumstances of this tragic event.