

Port of Rades: Worker dies in a work accident on board the "ULYSSE"

Publication date : 22:11 - 04/17/2022

Today there was a work accident on board the ship "ULYSSE" of the Tunisian Navigation Company, anchored in the port of Rades at berth No. 4 at the container terminal and trailers in the port of Rades, during the handling of a towed by a port tractor inside the ship, which collided with the berth worker

The state of Yen Arous indicated that the victim was a worker at the Tunisian Shipping and Docking Company who had serious injuries to the chest and head

The civil protection agents intervened and transferred him to the severe burns hospital, but he died on the road before reaching the hospital. An investigation was launched into the incident by the Office of the Merchant Navy and Ports to find out the circumstances of the incident