

The death of a worker at the port of Menzel Bourguiba

2022-08-24 21:34

Today, Wednesday, a worker died in a work accident in the port of Menzel Bourguiba, after he fell on the ground, according to the regional director of civil protection in Bizerte.

The same source stated that the victim was over the age of thirty.

He was taken after falling from the side of the civil protection road to the regional hospital in the Bourguiba house, where he died as a result of his injuries.