

27-year-old man dies in the port of Bata during heavy rains yesterday

Juan Esono Nnembeng lost his life during the heavy rains that took place in the early hours of Friday in the city of Bata.

October 8, 2022

In the early hours of Friday morning, the employees of the TMGE company alarmed desperately about the discovery of the lifeless body of one of their colleagues with whom they were working until 3 in the morning.

Juan Esono Nnembeng, an employee of the TMGE company, was the only son of his mother, a native of Vabe - Osumu in the district of Kogo, and established his residence in the community of residents of Ikunde 3, loses his life aboard the cargo ship Port GDYNIA, after suffering a fall in the container hold at a height of more than 10 meters. During the removal of the lifeless body, the governor of the province of Litoral, Bartolome Owono Nze, and other civil, military and port authorities of this town were present.

Deogracias Egrum Ebohu, head of ships, stated that he asked all employees to stop activities due to the fall of rain, but that the deceased did not obey until he was informed of his death after a few hours.

The deceased's companions such as Tomas Elomba Molongua, who stated that it was not the first time that the deceased had suffered a similar fall, added that in the first time he had a broken arm and was left in a coma, which is why the company decided to change him. section and assigning it the controller task.