

Incidents

BATA: Brutal Work Accident in the Port Precinct

A 27-year-old Equatoguinean, an employee of the TMG (Sea & Ports Group) company, dies on a cargo ship after suffering a fall in the container hold, at a height of approximately 10 meters.

October 7, 2022 - 14:42 Updated: October 20, 2022 - 15:54

Juan Esono Nnembeng dies at the age of 27, he was a native of Vebe Osum Kogo province of Litoral, due to an accident at work. He had his current residence in the city of Bata, right at Ikunde 3 bome Puerto road.

According to one of the close sources, the deceased disappeared just after having a last contact with one of his supervisors at 3:30 in the morning local time.

Following the statements we have obtained, the young man suddenly disappeared after they gave the order to stop the work they were carrying out due to bad weather, and nothing more was heard of him. After waiting for the rain to stop to continue with the work, they tried to locate him with several calls and could not locate him or his whereabouts.

After several hours of searching, they found his body at the bottom of the hold of the Port-Gdynia ship in which they were working unloading containers. It was not possible to know what was the cause of his death. The cause of death is being investigated by the competent authorities to find out what really caused his death.

Our sincerest condolences to the bereaved family.