

A worker was killed in a "run over" accident in the northern port of Umm Qasr

2022-12-07 | 01:58

A security source reported today, Wednesday, the death of a worker in a run-over accident in the northern port of Umm Qasr.

The source told Alsumaria News, "A worker contracting with one of the companies operating in the northern port of Umm Qasr died after being run over by a vehicle while working."

He added, "The security authorities have begun to open an investigation into the accident to see if it was intentional or by God's will."