

An investigation has been opened into the death of a foreign worker as a result of a run-over accident in the port of Umm Qasr

A security source said, on Wednesday, that an investigation had been opened into the death of a worker as a result of a run-over accident in the northern port of Umm Qasr.

The source said, in an interview with Al-Rasheed, that "a contract worker with a company operating in the northern port of Umm Qasr was killed after being run over by a vehicle while working."

He added, "An investigation has been opened into the accident to find out if it was intentional or premeditated."
