

Alberto Motta is dead. Crushed by a container: Workers strike the Port of Civitavecchia

Elisa Lugano - 10 February 2023

His name was Alberto Motta and he was 29 years old the worker died in an accident at work at the port of Civitavecchia. On the spot the border police and the magistrate. An investigation into the incident is underway. The worker, originally from Tarquinia, was crushed by a container he was carrying on one of the docks.

Alberto Motta was working on a forklift

Alberto Motta died while he was working on a forklift at platform 25. It seems that he was moving a container when he was run over by it. The 29-year-old worker was the son of another historic worker of the RTC port company, namely the company that manages the container terminal.

Strike proclaimed at the Port of Civitavecchia

“With reference to the very serious fatal accident, which occurred this morning in the Port of Civitavecchia at the Rome Terminal Container, which cost the life of a young worker, the undersigned Territorial Secretariats communicate, on the basis of art. 49 of the CCNL in force for port workers, the immediate 24-hour strike as a sign of mourning for the aspects related to safety in the workplace. From 12.00 of TODAY Friday 10/02/2023 to 12.00 of Saturday 11/02/2023.

The strike will affect all the workers of the Port of Civitavecchia".