

A 62-year-old man dies in a work accident at the port

By Laura Bouaricha April 17, 2023 at 11:36 am

Louis Langel died on Saturday April 15 at the port of Galisbay, after being the victim of a work accident. The president of the Collectivity Louis Mussington sent his condolences.

Around 9:30 p.m. on Saturday April 15, Louis Langel lost his life while unloading a barge containing sand at the port of Galisbay. According to our information, the 62-year-old man was at the controls of a mechanical shovel when the accident occurred. An investigation is underway to determine the circumstances of this tragedy.

THE CONDOLENCES OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE COLLECTIVITY

The day after the accident, the president of the Collectivity Louis Mussington sent a message of condolence. "I learned with great sadness of the death of Mr. Louis Langel during a handling operation on board a barge anchored at the port of Galisbay, Saturday evening," said the president. "Employed by the SDL company, Louis was a pillar of the company, a professional known and appreciated by all. He was very involved in associations, especially softball, and as such was very popular in the sports world", said the president of the Collectivity, Louis Mussington.

"This fatal accident left his loved ones in mourning and caused a stir in the whole community, in particular the Dominican community. I would like to express my most sincere condolences to his family, his friends, as well as to the manager of the SDL company and his employees. The chairman of the board of directors of the port of Galisbay, my elected colleague Daniel Arnel, the director of the port Alberic Ellis and his staff, as well as the elected representatives of the territorial council of Saint-Martin join me in expressing our heartfelt condolences and our unwavering support to the family as they face this painful ordeal. That his soul rests in peace".