

A worker was killed and two others were injured as steel falls from the top of a crane in the port of Damietta

Friday, July 19, 2024 10:30 PM

The security services in Damietta Governorate received reports of the death of a worker and the injury of others inside the Iron Square in the port of Damietta next to the silos while they were working.

The details of the incident are due to the security services in the area receiving a report, stating the death of a worker and the injury of other workers after pieces of steel fell on them from the top of the crane in the square.

The body was taken to the hospital and the injured were transferred to the emergency hospital in order to receive treatment, a report of the incident was written, and the public prosecution was notified of the incident to initiate investigations.