

The death of a person after the fall of iron pieces from a crane in the yard of the port of Damietta

19 July 2024

The word of a young man in the third decade of age, his last breath was affected by his injuries as a result of his injury after a new piece fell on him during his work inside the yard of the port of Damietta, and immediately he was taken to the hospital and the necessary legal measures were taken.

The details of the incident date back to the Rescue Police receiving a report that a piece of iron from a crane fell while working on a worker, in the yard of the port of Damietta, and immediately ambulances moved to the site of the report.

A young man in the third decade of age, whose last breath was uttered by surgery, was also transferred as a result of the accident, and it turned out that he was called AO and resides in Al-Gharbia Governorate, and the necessary legal measures were taken and the Public Prosecution ordered the burial of the body.