

WORK ACCIDENT

A Dock Worker Is Seriously Injured at the TTIA Marine Terminal

A Young Man's Legs Have Been Crushed by a Straddle Carrier

By Editorial | 09 / March / 2016 00:13 h.

ALGECIRAS, ES - A serious accident occurred in TTIA marine terminal at the Port of Algeciras tonight, when a casual worker was run over by a straddle carrier.

As a result of the collision, the young man was taken to the hospital ICU Punta Europe with both legs in very bad condition.

In the wake of the accident, emergency crews who have transferred the injured worker to the hospital where they try to determine the severity of injuries.

The container terminal TTIA has stopped operations for the moment.