

Security guard died after being run over in the port

Wednesday, November 21, 2018

José Ramón Ulloa 54-year-old Plaza lost his life after being hit by a truck when he was working as a guard at the port of San Antonio.

Missing a few minutes for 10:00 am on Wednesday morning on Avenida La Playa in the commune of San Antonio the rampla of a truck ran over the man of 54 years, who was developing his functions for the company Eulen, which provides services for STI, causing serious injuries that ended his life hours later at the Claudio Vicuña hospital.

Carabineros personnel arrived at the place to provide first aid to the victim, who was transferred urgently by the staff of the Samu to the sanantonino care center, where despite the efforts failed to survive the serious injuries.

Those responsible for clarifying the causes of the outrage that ended the life of José Ramón Ulloa Plaza is the personnel of the Traffic Accident Investigation Section of the Carabineros, who carried out the expert reports at the scene.

Meanwhile, the deceased worker is being veiled at his home in the El Faro sector in the San Antonio district and his funerals are expected to take place at the Mirador Park Cemetery.

Reactions

María Violeta Silva, seremi del Trabajo from the region regretted the death of this Sanantonino, adding that as an entity and through the Labor Directorate they were in place to corroborate that they were complying with all security measures at the time of the fatal impact .

"Around noon we were informed by public bodies about this accident that occurred in circumstances that this guard was directing the traffic to the entrance of the port area."

From the point of view of the Labor Inspectorate this was constituted for the purpose to determine if labor standards had been complied with respect to the safety and life of the workers, that is to say that the current contract was in force, their functions were specified, whether or not they knew the occupational hazards with respect to the work they carried out, If we had enough rest and other issues that could affect the workers in their tasks, we hope that according to the Labor Directorate's protocol we can have this soon to reveal what were the causes of the accident, "Silva added.

Empresa Portuaria San Antonio regrets accident in port area

Regarding the outrage occurred this Wednesday at this morning in the sector of La Playa Avenue, the general manager of the port company, Aldo Signorelli, lamented the death of José Ramón Ulloa Plaza, a worker belonging to the company Eulen, who provide management services of mobilization in the port area.

"As a port authority we deeply regret what happened and we express our condolences to the family and work colleagues of Mr. José Ramón Ulloa Plaza," the general manager said.