

A foreign transport vessel leaked liquid ammonia during loading and unloading at Rongxi Port, and 5 Chinese employees died

Beijing News, March 02, 2011, 11:37

According to the official Weibo news of the Press Office of the People's Government of Rongcheng City, Shandong Province, on the evening of March 1, 2019, during the loading and unloading process of a foreign refrigerated transport ship in Rongxi Port, liquid ammonia leaked from the warehouse, resulting in five Chinese employees died and the cause of the accident is under investigation.