

Port Director: Longshoreman dies after she's caught between two pieces of cargo

by STAFF Monday, July 8th 2019

BEAUMONT — Investigators are searching for the cause of an accident that killed a longshoreman who was working at the Port of Beaumont, according to information Port Executive Director Chris Fisher provided to KFDM/Fox 4.

Fisher says the accident was reported at about 11 a.m. Monday at the Port.

He says a longshoreman working for P C Pfeiffer and Company became caught between two pieces of cargo and died.

An investigation is underway, according to Fisher, by the Port of Beaumont Police Department. OSHA is also expected to investigate, according to Fisher.
