

Saint-Jean-de-Folleville (Seine Maritime). Radicatel port terminal, a young handler dies after falling from a hoist

11:36 - 08/07/2019 By The Courier Cauchois

The Radical wharf, Saint-Jean-de-Folleville, near the Tancarville bridge Photo archives

Tragic accident, Friday, July 5, 2019 around 8:30 pm on the wharf of Radicatel , Saint-Jean-de-Folleville (Caux country, Seine-Maritime) .

A 20-year-old man fell from a handling machine. He was then crushed by the machine used to move containers. Despite the intervention of the relief workers, the young employee of the handling company RM Services died on the spot.

According to the first explanations, the victim was inside the cabin of the hoist with the driver. The latter would not have noticed that his colleague had fallen. An investigation was opened by the gendarmerie to determine the precise circumstances of the tragedy.

This dramatic event caused the suspension of all movement on the terminal. The ship Nederland Reefer, which was being loaded - 48 containers remained to be loaded - is still docked on Monday 8 July. Loading operations will start again on Tuesday 9 July at 7 am and end around 10 am. From then on, the ship will be able to sail. The Terminal will reopen the same day at 1 pm to proceed with the delivery of full containers and the removal of empty containers.