Man killed in workplace accident at Belview Port, Kilkenny named as Ciarán Cave

MaryAnn Vaughan 12/05/2019

The man killed in an accident at Belview Port in South Kilkenny has been named as Ciarán Cave.

The young father, who was from Mulrankin in Wexford was killed on Friday afternoon.

He became trapped under the contents of a truck that was being unloaded and was pronounced dead at the scene not long after half past 4.

He'll be laid to rest tomorrow morning in Wexford.