

الأخبار المسائي

The death of a worker inside the port of Dekheila, a container fell on him

Zainab Yousef Saturday, April 09, 2022 - 2:59 PM

In a tragic accident, a worker was killed inside the Dekheila port when a container fell on him while transporting goods.

Major General Hossam al-Saghir, director of Alexandria port security, had received a report of the incident. Major General Imad Farouk, director of criminal investigations in Alexandria port, and Colonel Mohamed Mesbah, head of port investigations, had found that while Salah Hassan Ahmed, 45, from Damanhour, was the worker who was killed by the falling container. His body was transferred to the ambulance morgue, and the prosecution ordered the burial of the body after Autopsy and criminal investigations were conducted in the port of Alexandria.