

Crushed by vehicle while checking a container at the port: the worker died on the spot

The victim was a 52-year-old man, and another worker was injured. Announce a 24-hour strike

18 dicembre 2024 alle 09:11Aginato on December 18, 2024 to 10:49

The Port of Genoa (Fogile photo)

A fatal accident occurred in Puerto Pla, Genoa.

The victim was a 52-year-old worker: According to the preliminary reconstruction, he was checking the seal of a container on the ground when he suddenly found himself directly colliding with a fifth wheel vehicle. The worker was crushed and died on the spot.

The prosecutor on duty filed a case for manslaughter and confiscated the area, the vehicle and the driver's mobile phone. Inspectors of the ASL3

Workplace Prevention and Safety Department are listening to witnesses' testimony to accurately reproduce the dynamics of the tragedy.

At the same time, the port will remain closed for mourning and a 24-hour strike has been held.