

HCMC: Industrial truck runs over and kills container driver at Truong Tho port

December 17, 2024

To arrange cargo containers, the reach stacker while reversing fatally ran over a container truck driver at Truong Tho port (Thu Duc city, HCMC). On the evening of December 17, 2024. Thu Duc City Police (HCMC) examined the scene and investigated the cause of the work accident that killed one person at Truong Tho port (Truong Tho ward).

The victim was identified as Mr. P.D.N (39 years old, from Dong Thap), a container truck driver.

Photo 1. Scene of the vehicle accident that ran over a container driver at Truong Tho port, Thu Duc city (HCMC)

Initial information, in the afternoon of the same day, Mr. N. drove the container truck into Truong Tho port and then put the truck in position to load and unload cargo containers. At around 5:30 p.m., Mr. B.C.Tr (29 years old, from Long An, forklift driver) while driving the forklift to arrange the cargo boxes, and reversing the vehicle, ran over Mr. N. The incident caused the male container driver to die on the spot.

The scene of the work accident occurred at a narrow corner, the victim was lying between the rear of the container truck and the reach stacker. Reach stacker backs over runs container truck driver at Truong Tho port. Port security forces quickly arrived to protect the scene. At 7:00 p.m., Thu Duc City Police were blocking off, examining the scene, and taking statements from witnesses to serve the investigation of the work accident that killed a container driver.