

Stevedore, 63, crushed to death at John Fernandes wharf

January 17, 2025

The Ministry of Labour's Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) Department has launched a probe into a fatal workplace incident that occurred yesterday at the John Fernandes Limited (JFL) Wharf, Water Street, Georgetown.

The deceased has been identified as Dallas Sharples, a 63-year-old stevedore employed by John Fernandes Limited.

Reports indicate that Sharples was working with his colleagues to offload containers from the vessel MV JPO Aquila when the tragic accident took place.
