

A Vietnamese worker died at Vung Ang port

September 15, 2025

TTO - A truck carrying wood chips was about to pour its cargo on the conveyor belt when the victim poked his head into the gap, the conveyor belt cut off his head.

Lieutenant Colonel Pham Thanh Son, deputy commander of the border guard at Vung Ang - Son Duong port gate (Ha Tinh Border Guard Command) said that at 1am this morning (September 15), a tragic accident occurred at wharf No. 2 of Vung Ang Port Joint Stock Company.

The victim is Mr. Tran Cong Dao (36 years old, residing in Quang Tung commune, Quang Trach district, Quang Binh province).

The accident occurred when the truck carrying wood chips was about to pour wood into the conveyor belt, Mr. Dao poked his head into the gap between the conveyor belt, and the moving conveyor belt cut off his head.

Mr. Dao is a worker of Cat Phu Company Limited.

This company is in Quang Binh but the chipped wood conveyor was operating at wharf No. 2 of Vung Ang port.

Colonel Dang Hoai Son-Chief of Ky Anh District Police said that after the accident, the district police came to protect the scene, examined the autopsy and reported the victim's family.

On the morning of the same day, the family took the victim back to his hometown for burial.