

By Ambrosius Harto

02 Feb 2026 16:14 WIB · English

SURABAYA, KOMPAS - The integrated team is still addressing the incident of the cargo ship Pacific 88 that tilted during loading and unloading at the Jamrud Selatan Dock, Tanjung Perak Port, Surabaya, East Java, on Monday (2/2/2026).

According to information from the Tanjung Perak Port Authority and Harbor Office, the incident occurred at 04:00 WIB. As of 16:00, integrated handling of the incident is still being carried out.

A stevedore is suspected to have fallen into the sea. His identity has not been disclosed, and his fate remains unknown. "Search and rescue operations are still ongoing," said the Head of the Tanjung Perak Port Police, Commissioner Wahyu Hidayat, who was confirmed on Monday evening.